

Blessed Anna Maria Taigi
Mother of a Family

Prayer

Father, You who glorify the humble, made Blessed Anna Maria an outstanding model of charity and a virtuous wife and mother. May her prayers help us to meet with fortitude the challenges of our state of life and may her example teach us to love You always above all things. Grant this through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Background

Anna Maria Taigi was born in Siena, Italy, on May 29th in 1769. When she was six years old her family moved to Rome. There she later met her husband Dominico and raised her family. Although she was very busy in caring for her household, she never failed to exercise works of charity towards the poor and sick. Being such a model of virtue and holiness, many came to her seeking advice. She was one of the great mystics of the 19th century. God enriched her with many supernatural gifts. The most unusual of these was the apparition of a luminous globe, like a miniature sun, which shone before her eyes constantly for 47 years. In this vision she could see the past, present and future events anywhere in the world, as well as the state of grace of individuals, living or dead. She died on June 9th in 1837, and her mortal remains lie in the Basilica of San Crisogono in Rome. She is the patron of the Third Order of the Most Holy Trinity. Blessed Anna Maria Taigi is a powerful intercessor for those who call upon her.
